

As forward state-dependence is introduced — via kernel mismatch  $\eta$  (left) or anchor-weighted hazard  $\gamma$  (right) — SJD's reverse hazard automatically develops the matching structure (heatmaps). Using a time-only reverse schedule discards this structure, incurring the Prop. 4.2 excess risk plotted above.